A person stands in the center of a dark, atmospheric space. Above them is a bright, circular light source, possibly a sun or moon, which casts a strong glow and creates a silhouette of the person. The light also illuminates the surrounding environment, which appears to be a dark, possibly underground or cave-like setting with some vertical structures on the right side.

FINDING

At times amid the crowds and noise
Of everyday life,
My individuality seems to vanish in
the haze;
Another faceless member of nameless crowds
Who know not where they're going
Or where they're from.

I'm trying to find my way
Through an endless maze,
Where all my dark fears hide.
And I fear
I've lost my way.

SEARCHING

I'm often seeking
For who I am
And what I'm meant to be:
A search for my place
And my dreams.

In my darkest moments,
I believe
I've even lost myself,
Though my being yet remains.

SEEKING

But then I catch my eye
In a window passing by,
And I know I am,
Even among the crowds,
An individual.

Though at times I feel
My chances are gone,
There's nowhere left to go,
In my very being I find
There is a chance for me.

SOLVING

In my searching,
I often find
The pieces of my dreams
Bound by friends,
And memories.
A complete picture
I'll finally see,
Of what I'm destined to be.

COMPLETING

On the road of experience
Trying to find my way
Sometimes I wish that I could fly away

When I think that I'm moving
Suddenly things stand still
I'm afraid 'cause I think
They always will

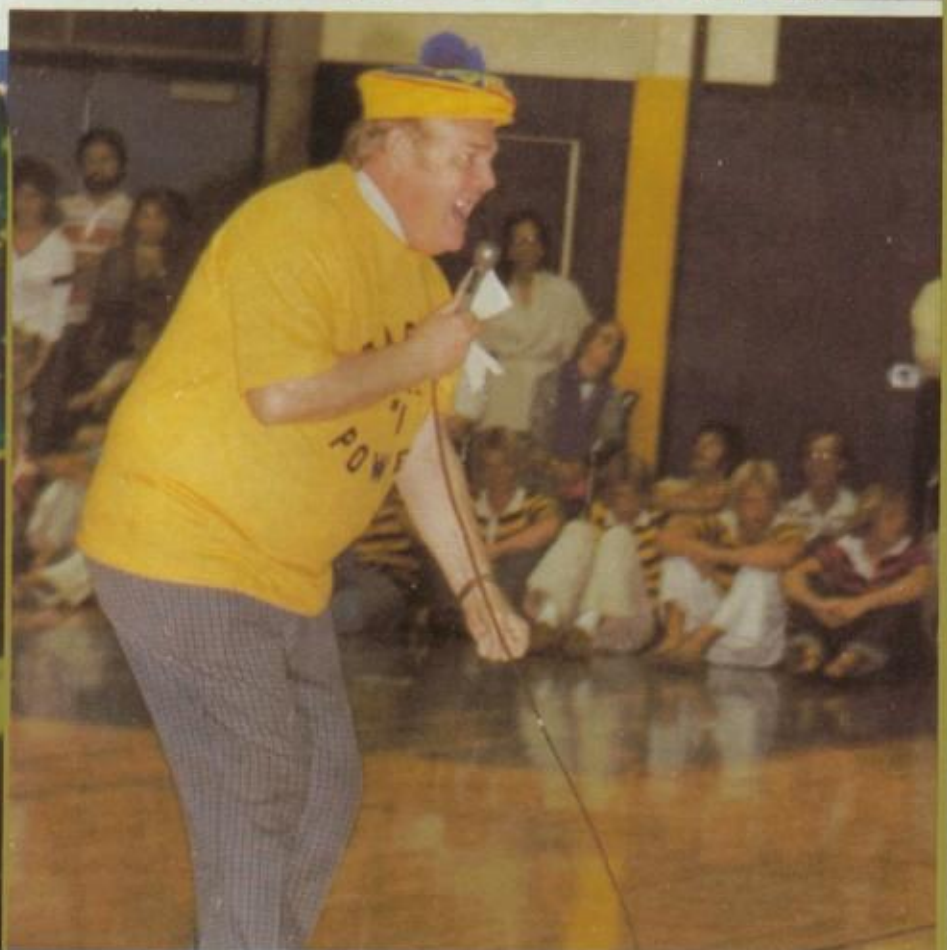

And I'm looking for space
And to find out who I am
And I'm looking to know and understand
It's a sweet sweet dream
Sometimes I'm almost there
Sometimes I fly like an eagle
And sometimes I'm deep in despair

All alone in the universe
Sometimes that's how it seems
I get lost in the sadness and the streams
And I look in the center
Suddenly everything's clear
I find myself in the sunshine
and my dreams

On the road of experience
Join in the living day
If there's an answer
It's just that it's just that way

When you're looking for space
And to find out who you are
When you're looking to try and reach the stars
It's a sweet, sweet, sweet dream
Sometimes I'm almost there
Sometimes I fly like an eagle
And sometimes I'm deep in despair

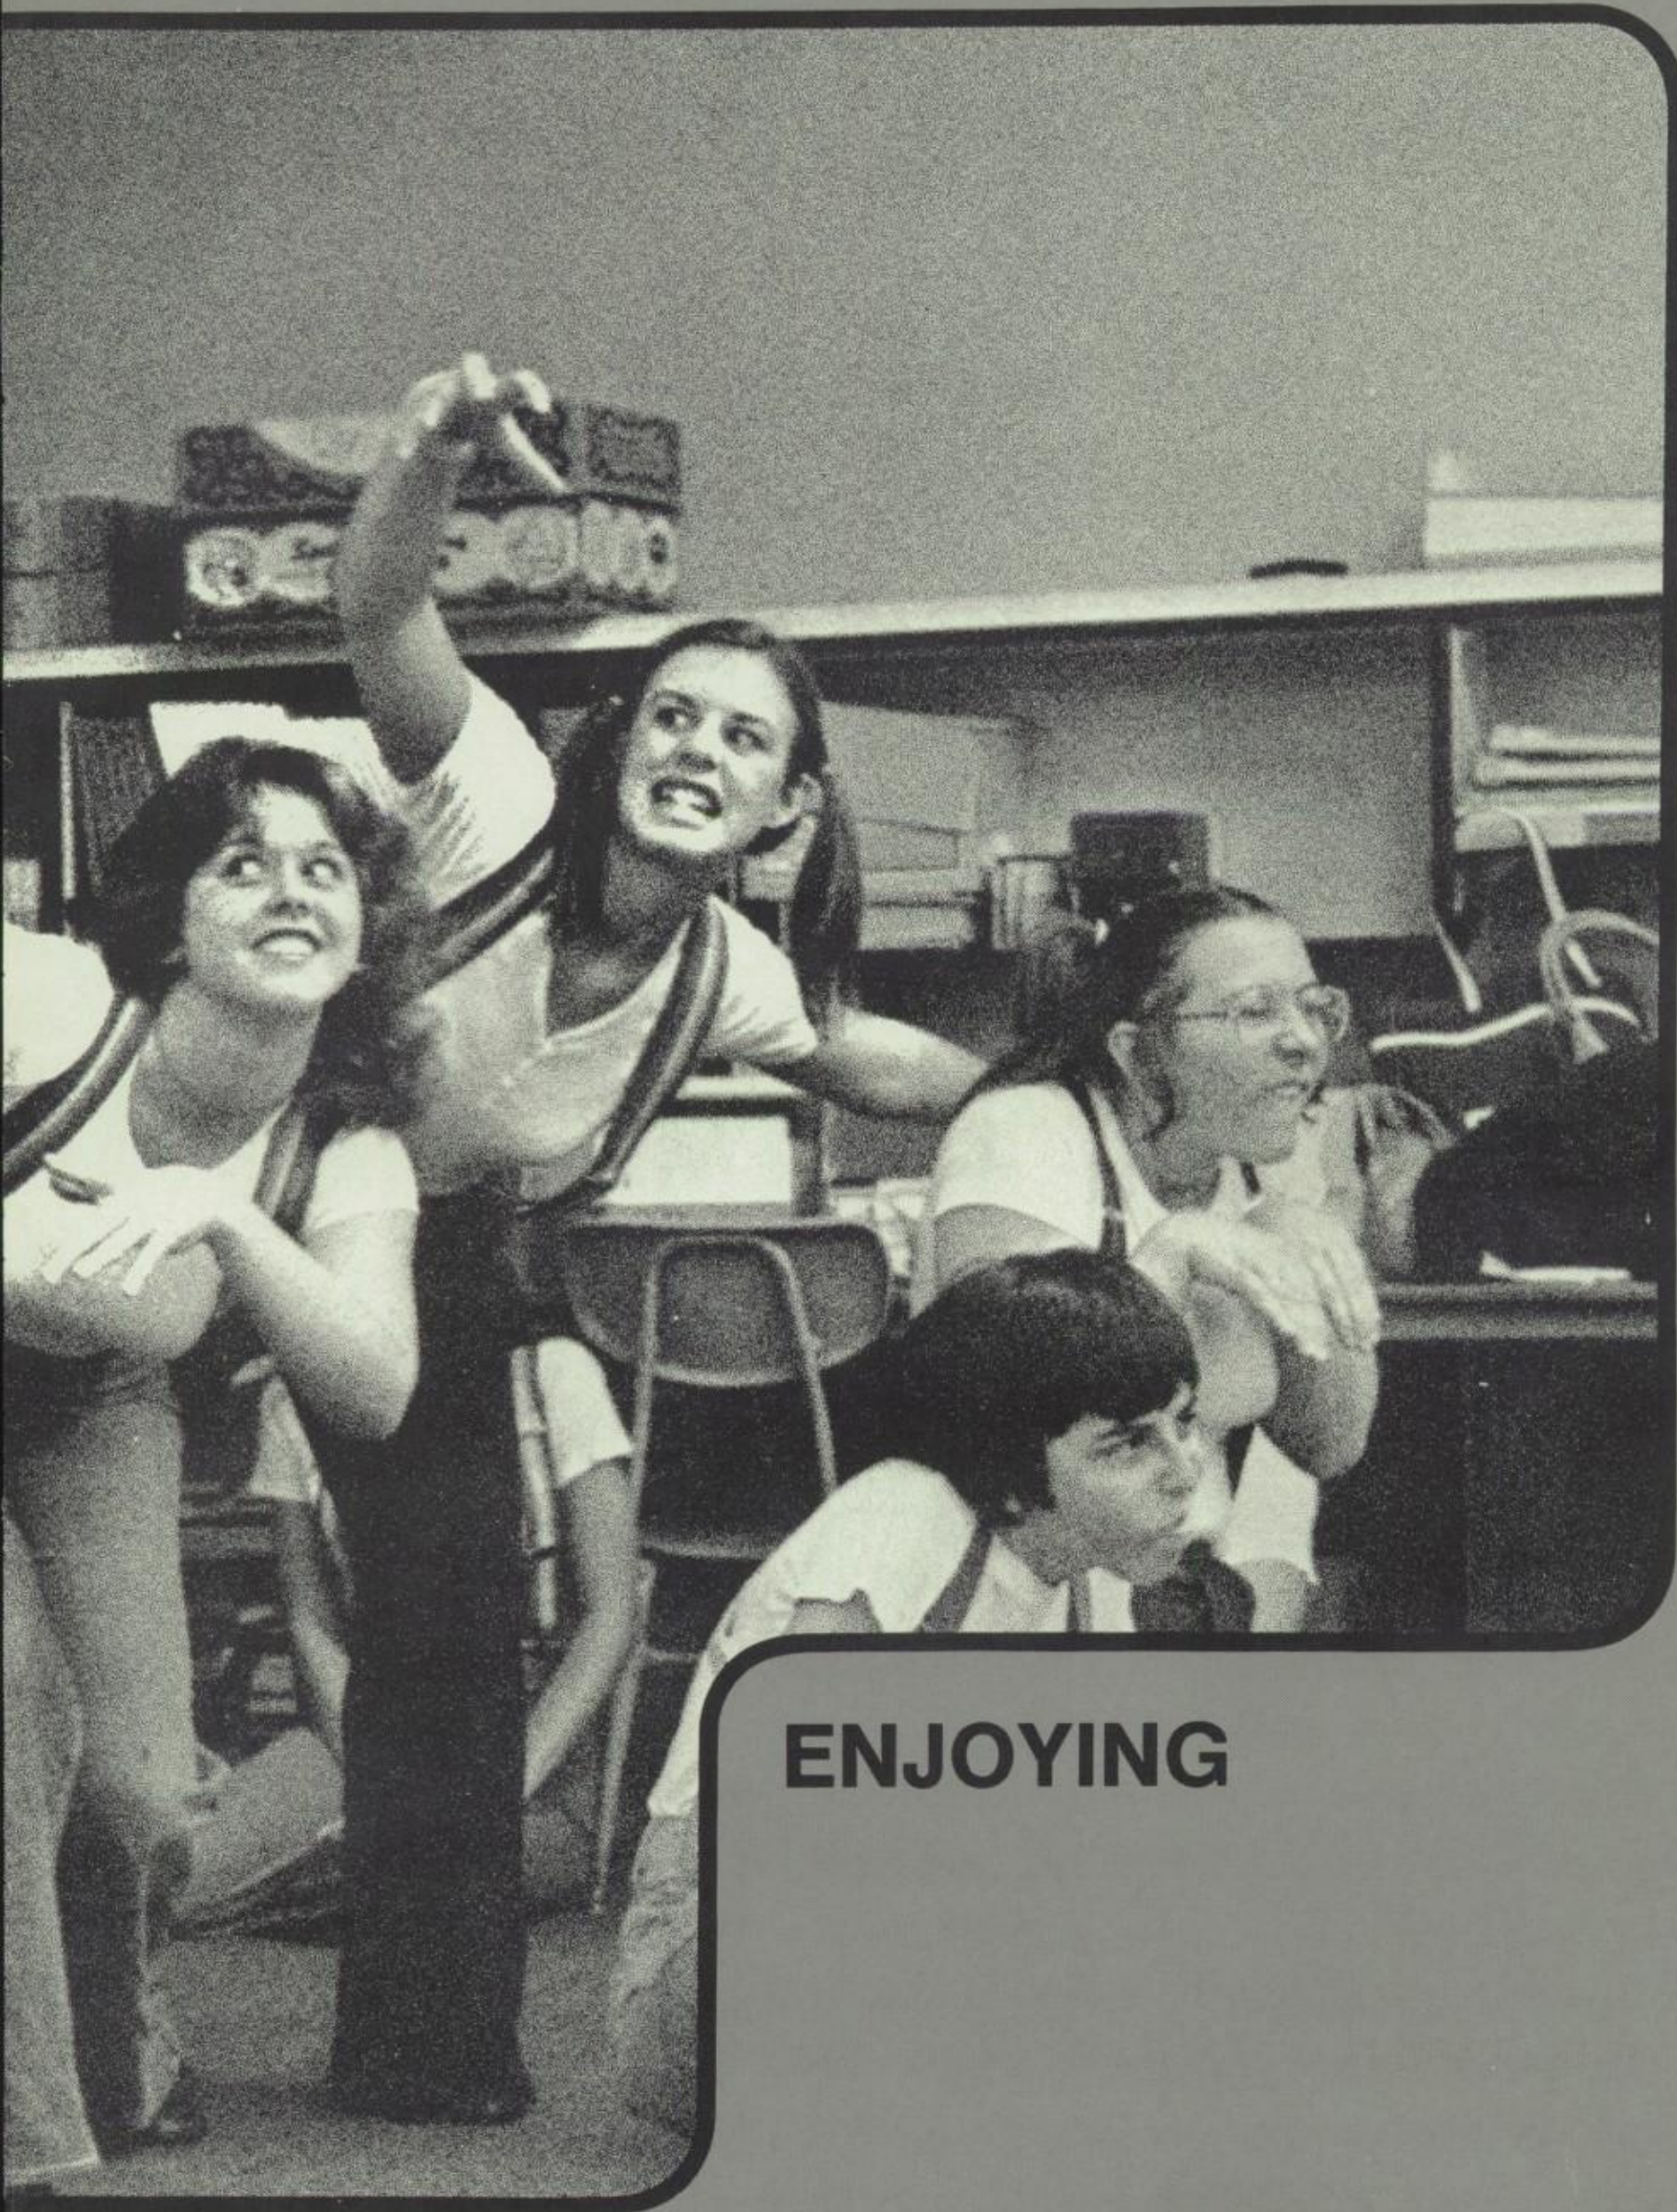

Sometimes I fly like an eagle
Like an eagle I go flying high

The Tuesday before school opened, a group of curious and timid new students walked onto our campus. The event was Freshmen Orientation! They all gathered in the bowl to watch a program planned for them. They were introduced to our school spirit by the pepsters and also entertained by a skit "Rindecella" performed by members of Student Government. They were later taken on guided tours of the school by experienced upperclassmen. Arena Registration followed the next two days for Seniors, Juniors, and Sophomores. They waited in long lines outside. Once inside, they signed up for the classes of their choice with the aid of teachers, counselors, and volunteer students.

The Baron Football Team added that special touch to our Homecoming festivities by defeating the Huntington Beach Oilers 28-0 at Westminster Stadium. A delightful halftime skit gave us a reminiscent look at our childhood years. We then returned to the present where everyone awaited the limousine arrival of the 1978 Homecoming Court. Terry Landsverk and Russ Heidesch were announced as 1978 Homecoming Queen and King. Russ could not be present, so his mother graciously accepted his crown. The Hyatt House in Long Beach provided a pleasant atmosphere for the Homecoming Dance held the following night. There the band "Kicks" dedicated the theme song "Yesterday, Once More" to the Homecoming Court.

A NIGHT TO REMEMBER:

"I can hardly wait to see Annie. I can just imagine how great she'll look in her long dress. I hope I'll have enough money for flowers. Maybe I'll pick some from Mom's garden . . .

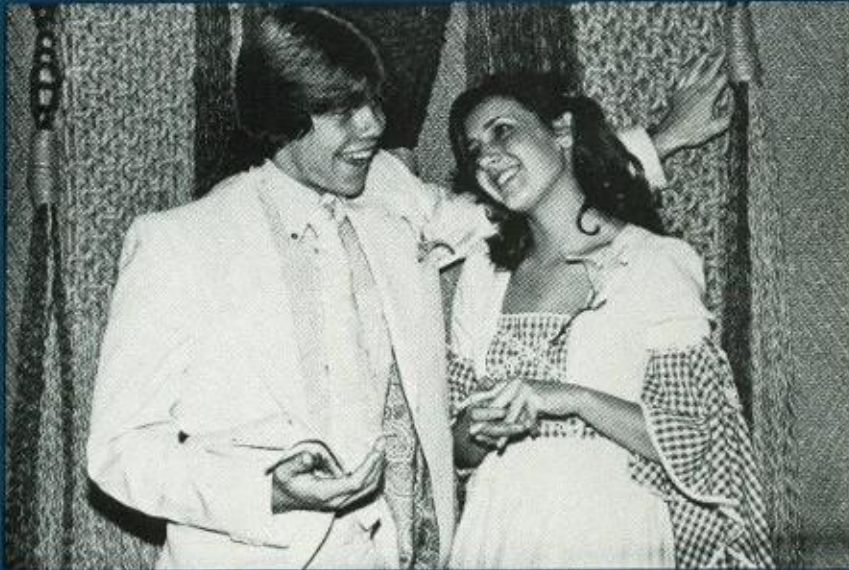

Gee, where will I take her for dinner? If Dad gives me my allowance on time, maybe I can take her someplace nice. Only the best for my little Annie . . . I wonder if Wendy's takes reservations . . .

BUT IN

I hope I won't run out of conversation. Maybe I better make notes on my hand. I didn't get past chapter 3 in my Fred Astaire Do-It-Yourself Dance Book (I would have to inherit Dad's two left feet). Maybe I can fake a sprained ankle and just talk all night . . .

Oh my, when I take her home, how will I get my arm around her? I could try the "Haley's Comet Routine" or the "Loose Thread on her Shoulder Move", but maybe I'll just stick to the simple "Yawn and Stretch Technique" . . .

Homecoming 1978: Sometimes What HE Imagines Is Not the Same as What SHE Imagines . . .

"I'm so glad Hank asked me to Homecoming. I just wish he would've asked me sooner. I'll never get ready in time. I have to finish sewing my dress, curl my hair, give myself a facial . . .

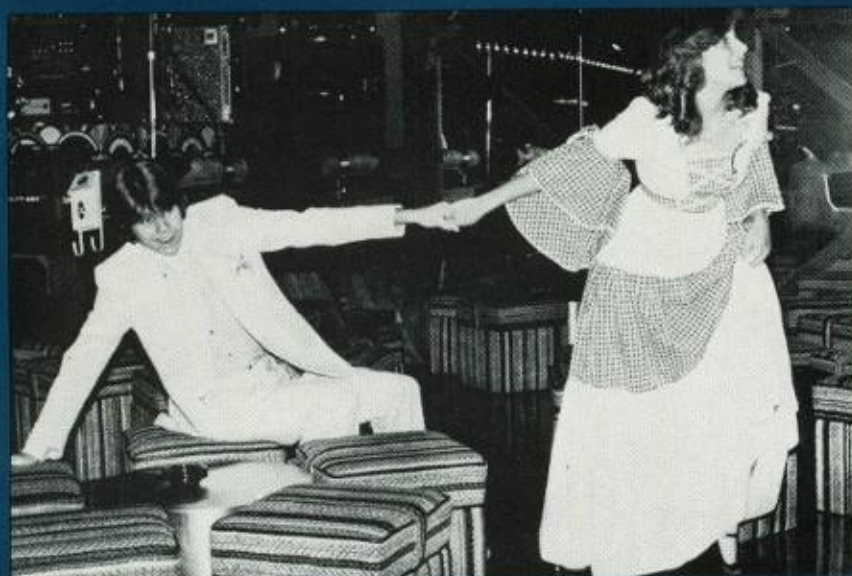

I could just picture dinner now: nice quiet expensive restaurant, French waiter, and a dark romantic corner, I'll look into his eyes, he'll look into mine, the violins' crescendo in the background . . .

THE END . . .

Things have a way of working themselves out . . .

"Well, Annie, I had a wonderful time. Thanks for the home cooked meal. It's too bad the band didn't show up for the dance, but I enjoyed just sitting and talking. I'm sorry that my car broke down and my Dad had to come to pick us up; I would have loved to have some time alone with you. What are you doing next Saturday night?"

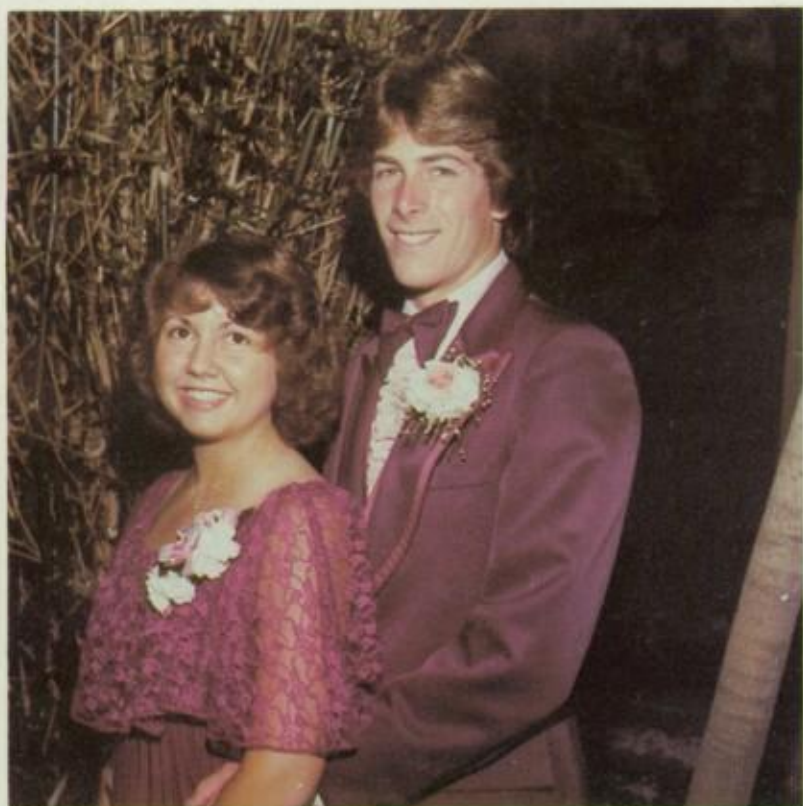

Those free disco lessons I won at "Grace Islacking Dance Studio" are sure going to pay off. If I take a nap before I leave I'll be able to dance until the cows come home . . .

Well I know he's shy; I doubt if I'll see any panky from hanky. Maybe I better make the first move. I saw this phony routine once on T.V. where a guy yawned and stretched to get his arm around the girl. Maybe I'll give it a whirl . . ."

For the second year in a row, F.V.H.S. held its successful Homecoming elections for both the traditional Homecoming Queen and the new Homecoming King. First ten lucky Homecoming Queen and King semi-finalists were selected from about one hundred interested, excited, and qualified nominees. They were chosen on a basis of personality, poise, school spirit, appearance, and the ability to answer questions. After two elections, the school gave the honorable title of 1978 Homecoming Queen and King to Terry Landsverk and Russ Heidesch. The members of their court included Princesses Teresita DeJong, Linda DeSoto, April LaMon, Karen Pikulin, Princes Chet Fields, Mike Hamill, Vince Sosa, and Bob Tidwell. The highlight of Homecoming Week was the anxiously awaited moment when the Homecoming Queen and King were announced at the Homecoming Game and their recrowning at the Homecoming Dance.

During the months of October and November, the Drama Department was busy preparing for the opening night of "Mash". This year's fall play "Mash" was a take-off of the original script, although it was quickly associated with the popular television series. The production was student directed by Dawn Haukland and starred Cal Cooley in his first major leading role. Our faces brightened at those familiar characters such as "Hot-lips" Houlihan, Lt. Col. Blake, Capt. Burns, "Radar", "Hawk-Eye", and "Duke". Doctors, nurses, and native South Koreans were stationed in lovely, romantic South Korea where the humorous wartime antics took place. "Mash" was a smash!

Spirit Week was a week full of fun and frolic for everyone! It was a time to unite our school and let our spirit really shine. The week was filled with such kiddie delights as a water balloon toss, coke drink, "Baby Huey" contest, bubble gum blowing contest, pie throw, and that favorite "Little Kiddie Day." Both individuals and clubs could get involved in these lunchtime activities. Marching Band obtained the most points in club competitions during Spirit Week winning a first prize of $30. Drama Club came in a close second and won $20. Mums, balloons, cotton candy, and caramel apples were also sold to bring out everyone's Homecoming spirit.

Remember when "tap" referred to the metal plates on shoes or to the place where water comes out? Well, HBUHSD has given the word a whole new meaning.

The Teacher Advisement Program at Fountain Valley High School groups together students of similar interests and places them under a teacher's instruction. TAP was held on Thursdays for approximately twenty minutes; Sophomores as well as Freshmen participated. During this time, students were in direct contact with a concerned teacher, who would be of great assistance to them. TAP is considered a beneficial program, because it provides a chance for newcomers to become acquainted with their school, it provides a chance for important information and testing to be given to students, and it is a time where a teacher is free to help students with educational as well as personal problems. This program is also extremely important to the counseling staff. With over 4,000 teenagers at FVHS and only eight counselors, it proves hard to make an appointment with one of them. Thus, TAP relieved some of the counselors' overabundance of work. This program sounds terrific in theory, but is it in actuality? A majority of students and teachers seemed to feel that TAP was a waste of time and effort, but their negative attitudes might possibly have limited them from the benefits of the program. They claimed that it totally disrupted a teacher's schedule, that students were wasting valuable class time where they could have been learning, and it was an inconvenience for the Juniors and Seniors with 6th periods who wasted twenty minutes of their time doing nothing. The students and teachers claim that there was absolutely nothing to do during this time, and they all just sat in a classroom staring into space, waiting for TAP to quickly pass by. Is TAP a worthwhile program?

Pep Assembly days were those days in which your classes were cut five minutes, you were pushed and shoved in the crowd, and you looked desperately for a seat in the packed gym. After finally finding seats, everyone anxiously awaited the start of our spirited pep assemblies. The Varsity Football Team made their usual grand entrance to the cheering of the proud crowd. Various other Baron teams were also recognized. Our Marching Band was there to set the beat for the cheerleaders who pepped up the crowd by leading cheers and doing skits. Drill Team and Banner Squad also entertained the crowd with their latest routines. Two favorite surprises were the "alias" football players dressed up as cheerleaders, and the 1978 Homecoming King finalists being "babied" and burped by the Homecoming Queen finalists. Our pep assemblies always ended with the traditional Alma Mater . . . "Hail Fountain Valley, Hail to thee."

PAYS OFF IN THE END

(5)

There's a lot that goes into making a winning team. The quality of coaches and trainers is very important, along with the hard work, dedication, and team work of its players. There is a lot of work put into each game behind the scenes — not just the football game you see each Thursday or Friday night. They put all their effort into each game and really feel the thrill of victory and the agony of defeat. For the first year in the history of FVHS, our Varsity Football Team won the CIF Championship. Our only defeat this season was to our arch rivals, the Edison Chargers. We took second place in the Sunset League, thus qualifying for the CIF playoffs for the fourth year in a row. Even though we were only ranked number three in the Big Five Conference, our football team worked hard to pull through and win. Since we had beaten Servite in a previous game only in the last few seconds, an exciting final game was expected.

Approximately 12,000 fans attended the game at Anaheim Stadium to watch the FV Barons defeat the Servite Friars 34 to 14. The victorious season was dedicated in honor of Doug Thompson. Doug was the 1977 Quarterback of our Varsity Football team, and the All County Quarterback. Someone with such pride, dedication, and greatness on the field will never be forgotten by FVHS.

To get us into the spirit of the holidays, a special week was planned. The school was delightfully decorated with Christmas trees and garland everywhere. Everyone listened to mistletoe hunt clues over the announcements, and the winner received a dinner for two at the Black Angus. Doors in the halls were creatively decorated by homerooms, and ice-cream sundaes were awarded to the winning classes. Somehow our Homecoming Queen and a basketball star transformed into Mr. and Mrs. Claus overnight and visited with students in the bowl during lunch. While Girl's League was selling their traditional Santa Grams, Holiday Week Commission sold yummy Christmas cookies during lunch. The highlight of the week was the "new-fangled" Holiday Computer Dance co-sponsored by Keywanettes and Student Government. Everyone who bought presale tickets, wore numbers and searched high and low for their matches in the cafeteria. The purpose of this dance was to meet new people and rock the night away. This dance could be the beginning of a new tradition.

It was evident that something was wrong when students arrived at school on Wednesday, January 3, 1979, to see their teachers picketing in front of the school. Immediately, everyone was greeted by Dr. Berger's friendly voice over the announcements saying, "WH-WH. Will all students who do not have a class please report to the cafeteria?" Substitutes arrived that day supplied with aspirin and Roloids. One substitute even came with an autoharp, prepared to sing "On Top of Old Smokey" to his classes. Accidentally, a few classrooms were supplied with more than one sub, and some teachers, not on strike, had subs taking over their classes when they arrived. As time went on however, classes became more organized, and some students even complimented the substitutes on their teaching abilities. This strike had been planned for months by the teachers, after working without a contract since June, 1978. Negotiations began in February, 1978, but a new two-year contract could not be agreed upon by the teachers and the School Board. Disputes concerned the issues of binding arbitration, the emergency clause, class size, and a pay raise. Teachers felt that their last resort was to go on strike. During the strike, students worried about how their grades would be determined for the fall semester. Television coverage caused excitement around the school with several students being interviewed along with Dr. Berger and some teachers. Additional turmoil was caused by planned student walk-outs. The strike finally ended after seven days of deliberation. The School Board agreed to give the teachers a 10% pay raise for the next school year, along with dental and eye benefits for their families. Although not completely satisfied, the teachers accepted this settlement. Everyone concerned was glad to get things back to normal.

Sadie Hawkins, sponsored by Senior Commission, gave girls the chance to see what it was like to be put in a guy's shoes. Weeks before the dance, girls tried to summon up enough courage to ask their fav-o-rite fellers to the shindig. For this night, the girls also had the rare opportunity of pickin' up the tab. Couples arrived at Dogpatch, U.S.A., on Saturday, January 27, dressed in their best hill-billy get-ups. Immediately, gals pinned daisy boutonnières on their beaus or searched for their paper heart keepsakes. Kissin' licenses were available fer those willin' to smooch fer a long thirty seconds. Close by, weddin' bells rang, and Marryin' Sam and Sally hastily married many couples that night. While some couples stood in line fer the moonlit hayride under the stars, others danced to the beat of "Night Construction". Vittles were served in the faculty dining room fer those with grumblin' stomachs. The grub included Marie Callender's apple pies, carmeled apples, and licorice. While eating, entertainment was provided by the sounds of "Live Oak". The Daisy Mae and Li'l Abner costume contest, and the bubble gum guess added extra fun to the night. Everyone had a "foot-stompin' " good time.

Mork from the popular 1978-1979 television series, "Mork and Mindy," was able to captivate American hearts by sitting on his head, putting on clothes backwards, conversing with a space suit, and exchanging split handshakes. Mork ended each show with reports similar to this:

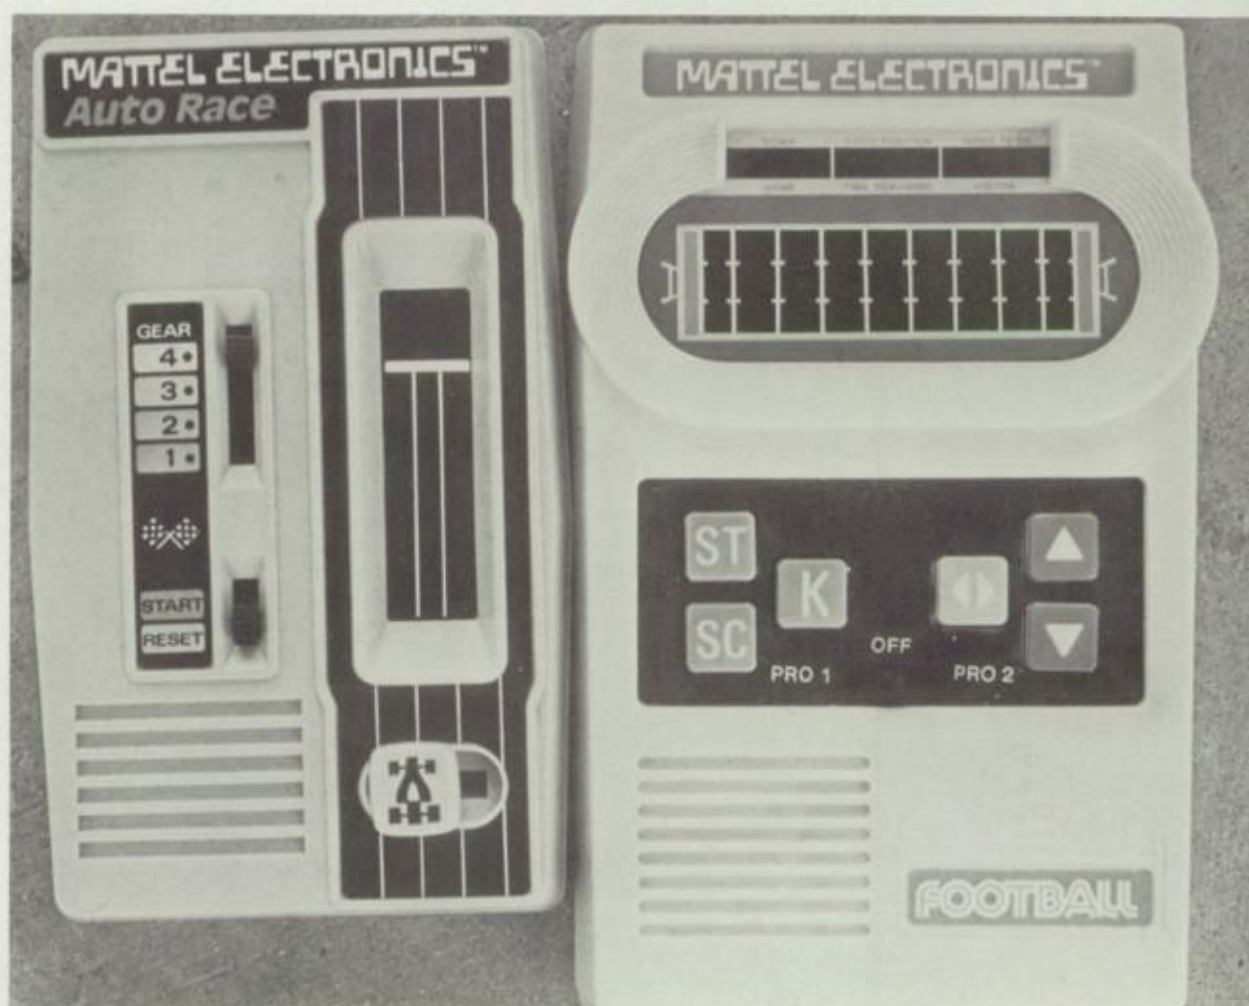

"Mork to Orsen. Come in Orsen. These humans lead a very strange existence. Their weather is just as strange. A city called Fountain Valley had a terrible heat wave one month and a rare snowstorm the next. They also have weird things called propositions. I think that one was numbered thirteen. The earth shook in Santa Barbara, and I thought that it was an invasion from another planet in space. Mindy informed me that it just an earthquake. I felt my eyes "leaking" when I heard of all the great people whose lives were lost this year. California Angel outfielder, Lyman Bostoch, was murdered. Edger Bergen, a famous ventriloquist, died shortly after his retirement. His "dummy", Charley McCarthy, was sent to the Smithsonian Institute. The deaths of the rock star of "The Who", Keith Moon, and painter, Norman Rockwell, were grieved along with the deaths of three former leaders, Golda Meir of Israel, ex vice-president Nelson Rockefeller, and former Senator Hubert Humphrey. The famous "finicky", Morris the cat, who made Nine Lives cat-food commercials a hit, passed away. Two popes died within one month of each other. Pope Paul was replaced by Pope John Paul, who was then replaced by Pope John the second. The mayor and a councilman of San Francisco were murdered in the Maskoni murder case. The Skid Row slasher struck by cutting the throats of victims on the streets of Los Angeles. Shocking news came to the world. Nine hundred and thirteen followers of the cult of Jim Jones in Guyanna committed suicide by drinking a mixture of cyanide and Kool-Aid. This was one of the largest mass suicides in history. One hundred and fifty victims died in the PSA crash in San Diego. Iranians revolted, trying to overthrow the Shaw. The Laguna Hills landslide caused many people to lose their homes and prized possessions. Woody Hayes' coaching career at Ohio State University came to an end after an unfortunate incident. However, Orsen, there are a few bright sides to this planet called earth. They even have some characters similar to us. I watched "Saturday Night Live" and saw the "coneheads" playing ring toss. The first "test tube baby" was born into the world a celebrity in July. Mickey Mouse celebrated his 50th birthday. A wild and crazy guy, Steve Martin, continued to grow in popularity. Tickets for his performances in Los Angeles sold for as much as two hundred dollars. Carter, Begin, and Sadat met for a conference at Camp David. The goal was to get the Arabs and Israelis to sign a peace agreement. After many years, diplomatic relations were finally established with China. Nixon returned to the White House for the first time since his resignation for a diplomatic dinner. Ali fought Spinks in two exciting matches. Spinks won the first match, and Ali won the second. Pittsburgh won the Superbowl. Everyone was talking about toga parties from the movie, "Animal House." Other popular movies were "Grease," "Superman," "Midnight Express," and "Lord of the Rings." Some funny movements, known as disco, were popular for their second year in a row. Everyone was dancing to the beats of "YMCA," "Macho Man," and "La Freak." This is Mork signing off until next year. Nano-Nano."

The year, 1979, was the closing chapter of the decade of the 70's. These were our growing up years, and the events that occurred should never be forgotten. We watched fads and popular crazes like streaking, pet rocks, mood rings, and puka shells, go in and out. Girls who once pleaded with their mothers to hem their dresses five inches above the knee, now wear them five inches below. The changes in pant legs were also noticeable, as they went from "straight legs" to "flares" to "bell bottoms" to the wide "elephant legs", and then back down the line. Everyone also wiggled their toes in the "new-fangled" toe socks. During the years, girls copied the hairstyles of popular stars like Dorothy Hamill and Farrah Fawcett. The voting age was lowered from 21 to 18. The end of the Vietnamese War came, and 500 POW's returned home. Many people opened their homes to citizens of war-torn Vietnam. The Energy Crisis became a prime concern for our generation causing the lowering of speed limits to 55 miles per hour, and the popularity of compact cars. Nixon resigned from the presidency after one of the biggest scandals in the history of the United States — Watergate. The long awaited Bicentennial Year of 1976 was celebrated. Governor Wallace of Alabama was shot during his presidential campaign in Maryland, resulting in paralyzation. Hank Aaron broke Babe Ruth's 714 homerun record. Patty Hearst went through a five year turmoil of being kidnapped, arrested, and given clemency by President Carter. Calculators and electronic games emerged to become the popular items that they are today. Calculators, once a novelty, can now be purchased by the average student. Jogging became the "in" thing for those not driving mo-peds or "sidewalk surfing". Raquetball and tennis became popular sports. Big television hits were "All in the Family," "MASH", "Mary Tyler Moore", "The Waltons", "Happy Days", and the explosive "Six Million Dollar Man". Everyone also began searching for their "Roots". As time goes on, we should remember yesterday, live for today, and plan for tomorrow.

When everyone walked into the 1979 Valentine's Dance, sponsored by Girl's League, they were astonished by the elaborate decorations.

Colorful streamers covered the ceiling, hearts and cupids hung in the air, and the band "Celebration" played in the clouds. This year's

Valentine's Dance was entitled "Love Is In The Air" and was held on February 10 at the Huntington Beach Elks Lodge. Besides planning an excellent dance, Girl's League did a terrific job selecting the Valentine Court finalists. Five girls and five guys were chosen from each class. The student body then voted for their favorites in each class. When the clock struck ten, the court was announced. Corey Hubbard and Melody Diehm were crowned Senior King and Queen. The members of their royal court included Junior Prince Monte Fitch, Junior

This was a night to be treasured by everyone.

"Cinderella," a musical comedy, had several performances in February in order to hold the large audiences that this one-act play drew in. Although everyone was already familiar with this popular story from our childhood, they could not help being delighted by the Drama Department's version. The ugly stepsisters, the wicked stepmother, and the good fairy godmother are unforgettable characters. This play, student directed by Keith Staley, starred both Lisa Matkowski and Melissa Swift in the leading role of Cinderella. They each portrayed her for one night. The magical touch of this play convinced everyone that "impossible things are happening every day."

EDISON CHARGER DATES A

Isn't it every Charger's dream to date a Baron? Well, on March 8, this wish was granted for the ASB President of Edison High School, Betty Bennett. She had the opportunity of selecting her choice from three FV bachelors on the opposite side of a partition, out of her view. Her decision had to be based on the answers that they gave to her questions.

Betty chose Bachelor #1, Mike Hamill, after five minutes of thorough questioning. Mike had many smart comments like the following. "You would rather date a Baron than a Charger, because we're more of a shocking experience. The song that best describes me is "Macho Man." The car that best describes me is the little "Love." The best part of Bachelor #3 are the buttons on his shirt. Betty was very pleased with her selection. Betty and Mike had a fabulous time on their date to "Cebastion's", a dinner playhouse.

"A two year football letterman, Bachelor #1 is currently also in his third season on the Varsity Tennis Team. Besides playing tennis, he enjoys water skiing, snow skiing, and reading. Being a member of the 1979 Homecoming Court was an honor that he received this year. Meet Bachelor #1, Mike Hamill."

"One of Fountain Valley's most wild and crazy campus leaders, Bachelor #2 has been involved in student government since his sophomore year and is presently serving as Executive Council Chairperson — the equivalent of student body president. He enjoys working on cars and is an avid football and racquetball fan. Meet Bachelor #2, Dennis Petersen."

"Bachelor #3 is one of Orange County's finest high school magicians and a member of the Lyceum and Speech clubs. He enjoys disco dancing and recently acquired first-hand experience for today, when he appeared on the nationally televised version of "The Dating Game." Meet Bachelor #3, James Wohrman."

FOUNTAIN VALLEY BARON

"A real disco doll, Bachelorette #1 loves everything about the glittering disco dance world. A senior this year, she is a member of the Speech Team and active in Girl's League. Meet Bachelorette #1, Darla Bates."

"One of Fountain Valley's most talented musicians, Bachelorette #2 is a piccolo player during the marching band season and has been the top concert flutist for two years. She is also active in student government, Keywanettes, and is currently serving as Girl's League President. Meet Bachelorette #2, Brenda Cody."

"Bachelorette #3 is one of our avid sport fans, especially enjoying football and skiing. Her favorite activities include running on the Baron Track Team and working as a part-time model. Meet Bachelorette #3, Patrice Harry."

Ken Kuester, a Varsity football player for the Edison Chargers, was our second contestant for the Dating Game. The Executive Council planned this Dating Game held in the gym during Activities Period. Ken had the tough task before him of choosing from three lovely FV bachelorettes hidden on the other side of a heart covered wall. All the girls greeted Ken with their sexy and sensuous "hellos." Ken selected Bachelorette #1, Darla Bates, because of her sweet answers to his questions. When Ken asked her what her BIGGEST qualities were, after a moment of embarrassment, Darla answered, "My talking and my cooking." She said that she was more like a kitty cat than any other animal, because it was soft and cuddly. She also showed everyone a really sexy pose, shown by audience reaction. Ken and Darla were also sent on a date to "Cebastion's" for a terrific dinner and delightful play.

The Drama Department constantly outdid themselves this year. Aside from their major productions such as the fall play, the one acts, and the spring musical, they kept busy with Mime Troupe performances and the Disaster Drill. "We are Le Mime" was the familiar beginning song of each of the Mime Troupe's performances.

The troupe's members, all enrolled in Theatre 3, spent many class hours preparing for their performances at elementary schools, the Performing Arts Winter Concert, the first District Drama Festival, and even at Knott's Berry Farm. Their second year of existence was a great success! Costumed in white faces, blue jeans, white

T-shirts, and rainbow suspenders, Le Mime artists captivated their audiences by communicating without words or props. On February 1, many drama students from FVHS participated in a simulation earthquake drill, sponsored by the Orange County Civil Defense Department. This drill was an awesomely realistic simulation with students portraying victims of smoke inhalation, skin burns, and other natural accidents. This drill was a preparation in case a major natural catastrophe should strike Orange County.

TO EACH HIS OWN

Through glittering droplets of golden days
The pastel patterns of magic flow
Clear rainbows, so perfect, shine bright through the haze
But bubbles don't last forever, you know.

Each shimmering sphere — illusive, supreme
In an instant will burst and be gone
But as fleeting its passage, you can't lose a dream
For the memory lingers on.

One delicate moment, they savor their fate
Revealing love's tafetta glow,
For now is a reality, time cannot wait,
And bubbles don't last forever, you know.

In a school with a student body population of over 4,000, there are apt to be many artistic talents that our students possess. This page is a tribute to those who usually go unrecognized, but deserved to be acknowledged and remembered in the yearbook. With the help of the Art and English Departments, a sample of quality student works were selected. These are only a few of the many creations that our students can produce. Maybe these poem, sketch, painting, or pottery artists will become famous some day. Individuality can be seen in each of these pieces.

I've been sitting here on the sand,
Watching the waves and the birds
And the fog off Catalina.
Dreaming of nothing at all.

Wasting time
So precious to others
When I know
There are things to be done,
Places to go and people to see.
Watching everyone rush.
I really should leave now.

This appears to be
No time for dreams,
A time of only
What appears to be, a reality.

Yet I still find time
To watch and wonder
At people,
And the sea at my feet.
A vision
That maybe you can't yet see.
Come, share a dream with me.

The Performing Arts Department was proud to present its seventh annual spring musical, "Bye Bye Birdie." It ran for four consecutive days in March at the Huntington Beach auditorium. The cast and the chorus got approximately sixty students involved in this production. Many hours of rehearsal time were spent practicing lines, singing, and dancing. As important as the actors themselves were to the musical, so too were the people behind the scenes who spent much time with set building, costume designing and directing. The hard work of the orchestra added to the perfection of the musical, also. The plot of the musical evolved around the eight year romance of Albert Peterson and Rose Alvarez, portrayed by Peter Adams and Laura McGlinchey. Albert was the manager of Conrad Birdie, who was a rock and roll singer, another Elvis Presley. Conrad Birdie was drafted, and had to go off to war. So why not make publicity for a new song, "One Last Kiss," by delivering one last kiss to a lucky girl? The lucky girl was Kim MacAfee, a sweet All-American teenager, who also happened to be the president of the Conrad Birdie fan club in her home town. How Kim's parents and her boyfriend, Hugo, reacted to Kim's luck was revealed to all those who attended the production. The scenes were filled with screaming fans, and the anticipation of the "one last kiss", which never came to be. It was a delightful experience for all of those involved in the production and for all of those who attended it.

Executive Council worked toward a very productive year. Fountain Valley High School's campus showed a definite improvement in cleanliness and beautification thanks to the Council. Teacher appreciation was at an all time high, with teachers being honored monthly. Many school fund raisers were established such as the jog-a-thon and the dance marathon. One of the Council's most successful ideas was to change the Christmas dance to a new and different computer dance. Fountain Valley students welcomed the change and the dance turned out to be a smash! Activities Days were filled with excitement and surprise. The 1978-79 Council chartered three new on-campus clubs and proved to be an important part of our school year.

Student Administration worked toward bettering Fountain Valley High School's campus and activities. The Administration sections included Campus Concerns, Communications and Publicity, Activities, and Athletics. This select group of students worked on the many problems that are facing Student Government. Karen Millerd was the 1978-79 Associated Students' Manager. This year's Student Administration should definitely be commended on the fine job they did.

Student Senate is a group of students appointed by Student Government to assigned districts. The student senators relay information to their designated classrooms concerning events on campus. The senators provide a useful service to our school. Lyceum is new on campus this year. The members participate in political debates and other intellectual events. Their activities include viewing films, practicing for the Kiwanis Bowl, and eating lunch together. They hope their club will continue to grow and prosper in the coming years.

Homecoming Commission worked harder than ever this year at producing one of the finest Homecomings in Fountain Valley High School's history. They spent many hours preparing for Spirit Week, Homecoming half-time, and most importantly, the memorable Homecoming Dance. This year's dance was held at the Long Beach Hyatt House with the theme "Yesterday Once More". The six dedicated students on Prom Commission were under the supervision of John Bovberg and Bill Lacey. They had the job of choosing many important details for the Prom such as the band, the bids, color, place, and theme, which was "A Time For Us". Couples partied and danced away the night at the Disneyland Hotel.

SONG MOVES TO VICTORIOUS BEAT

An important part of the FVHS cheering squads, were the 1978-79 Songleaders. They were very exciting to watch because they put all of their routines to contemporary music. During their free time, a Songleader could be found working on colorful signs promoting school activities, or practicing on cheers for the support of our athletic teams. The Songleaders' smiles and spirit certainly were a fine asset to our school.

Last, but certainly not least in the Pepster Squads were JV and Sophomore Yell. Though the Junior Varsity squad was smaller than in previous years, their strength and spirit was obvious. Sophomore Yell worked hard and did exciting routines at Pep assemblies. Both helped with Baron boosting and painting posters, and both were a definite bright spot at our school.

Fountain Valley's Drill Team consistently brightened our halftimes and pep assemblies. The FVHS Drill Team performed to quite a few new and exciting songs, including a memorable "Fly Robin Fly" Drill Team was also bestowed a new honor of performing at the Anaheim Stadium C.I.F. Finals football game before 12,000 fans. The girls had many fund raisers throughout the year to raise money for various trips and different outfits. Among their fund raising ventures this year, were selling candy and Baron buttons for their trips to Disneyland and the Miss Drill Team U.S.A. Competition. All in all, it was a memorable year for all who participated.

This year's Banner Squad has shown tremendous drive in their energetic performances which helped to lead the Band into several halftime competition and parade victories. Banner squad had several fund raisers to finance their trips to Disneyland, various parades, competitions, and their final trip to Arizona with the Band. Also supporting the team at various sports were mascots Terri Nisco and Suzi Boyer. Besides leading cheers with the Yell Leaders on the field, the mascots also promoted school spirit by coming into the stands and coaxing the crowd into cheers with spirit candy. Steve Abel, Drum Major, also helped to lead the Band to many successful performances. Colleen Campbell, the fast twirling majorette has twirled swords and batons with fire. Every performance was impressive as she threw her baton sky high.

Under the conduction of Mr. Tom Antal, the 1978-1979 Concert Choir had an excellent year. They had many outstanding performances including a winter concert where they sang mainly contemporary music. They sang at various professional appearances, and recorded a Christmas album entitled "Tis the Season" which turned out to be a great success.

The Baron Choir was busy with different activities such as singing at luncheons and attending concerts. Many of the singers from Baron Choir and Les Chanteurs sang for "Bye, Bye, Birdie." They made a Christmas album and had many bake sales for fund raisers with Mr. Antel helping out. The Baron Choir and Les Chanteurs really worked hard and achieved a great deal with their beautiful singing.

The 1978-1979 Troubadors are doing more these days than just singing. Drama, Orchestra, Concert Choir, and Troubadors teamed up this year to form the Fountain Valley High School Performing Arts Department. The Troubadors are now dancing to their singing and producing excellent performances. The Knotts Berry Farm engagement proved to be a big success. They also sang at the annual Christmas Concert and recorded an album along with the rest of the vocal music department, under the direction of Mr. Tom Antal.

Drama and Thespian students were successful in bringing some fine entertainment to Fountain Valley High School during the 1978-79 year. The Drama Department performed many lunchtime presentations, otherwise known as "Ham on Rye" for fund raisers. Under the direction of Mrs. Carole Cooney, many new talents debuted in the outstanding production of M.A.S.H. Starring roles were performed by Steve Cooke, Cal Cooley, Corey Hubbard, Jim Wallace, and Wanda Warburton. Drama members worked hard at making this year's spring musical, "Bye Bye Birdie" a memorable and enchanting production. Thespians participated in the District Wide Theatre Festival and went to competition. Mimes were performed for children in elementary schools. Performances were also held at Knotts Berry Farm and the Winter Concert. Overall, the Drama Department had a very busy and achieving year.

The Key Club organization had a hardworking and lively year. Their drive toward keeping the school "next to cleanliness" proved to be a very exciting and worthwhile project for the 1978-1979 year. Some of their other accomplishments included helping out at Fairview and Convalescent Homes. They planned many activities, such as parties, and sent flowers to cheer the lives and homes of the elderly at Parkhurst. Key Club also helped to brighten the New Year's weekend by helping out with the construction of the floats for the parade on New Year's Day. Key Club had a good year.

The Keywanettes worked throughout the 1978-1979 year to better the school and its activities. You could have found a Keywanette doing anything from serving at banquets for the Athletic department to stuffing envelopes for the Layette Program. The Keywanettes had various fund raisers throughout the year, including the sale of the traditional Homecoming mums, the sweet Valentines Sucker sales, and the colorful Easter Sucker sales. They have associations with many outside organizations as well. They worked with the American Cancer Society, the Childrens Home Society, and the Red Cross, but they are probably most involved with the March of Dimes. The girls worked at many activities concerning March of Dimes sOch as the Special Olympics, the Walk-A-Thon and the Jerry Lewis Telethon. The Keywanettes were indeed a very busy group of girls.

Girl's League, one of the most active clubs on campus, continued to contribute their talents to our school. In October, the girls started their fund raising activities by selling See's Suckers. The student body gladly contributed to this as they did when the League sold the popular Santa Grams. In February, Girl's League sponsored a successful and romantic Valentine's Day Dance. Couples danced to the music of Celebration with the theme "Love Is in the Air". Once again this year, Girl's League has proven to be one of the top clubs on campus.

Magic and Photo clubs were both active this year in many activities. Magic clubs advisor, Mr. Mittleman, acted as an agent for the club's talented members. He organized the annual show for SCATS and other private engagements. For instance, he arranged for several club members to play at various private parties, civic groups, elementary schools and the annual Blue and Gold dinner. Mr. Mittleman acted as a teacher as well, teaching them new tricks at their weekly meetings. Besides being fun, Magic club has proved to be a successful money-making venture for its members. This year Photo club, with its outstanding budget of 64 cents, tried to teach its members new photography techniques and processes. With some help from the superheroes, the innovation of color was becoming a reality. Black and white was not forgotten though. Special effects were becoming more and more common. New scenery and places were visited to get better and different pictures (i.e. Tahiti, Gotham City, Metropolis and Fountain Valley). With its Advisor Margo Parkins becoming more familiar with Photo club's peculiarities for her second year, she tried to just plain forget about them.

International Club helped foreign exchange students to feel comfortable on campus and had several fund raising activities. Overall these clubs had a very productive year.

Some of their more outstanding tournaments in speech and debate have been traveling to USC and Redlands for the Championship Tournament where they placed Fifth. They've also placed well in other various competitions, usually placing Second or Third and received six individual trophies. Club officers serving for this year were President Cheryl Manes, Vice President Steve Cho, Secretary Tracy Wessler and Treasurer Keri McNamara.

The German Club has been active with many events throughout the year. The German Club has sponsored roller skating, miniature golf with ice cream, ice skating, and participated energetically in the Jog-a-Thon. The group has been to a German Camp in Running Springs which proved to be quite an experience. To wrap up the year, the German Club held a beach party with all the trimmings. The French Club, called Les Chavaliers, has held snail races, played Petanque, a European bowling-type game, and have sold motto buttons for the Barons. The club has experienced eating at a French restaurant and watching a French film.

Latin club had a great increase in membership this year and they participated in several new activities such as projects on Rome and debates in Latin. The Latin students had an educated and enjoyable year. Because of the absense of their advisor, Spanish club was not as active as in previous years. But they are looking forward to next year with a new membership drive and the return of their advisor, Mrs. Davis.

Indian Club accomplished a lot this year. Included in their interclub activities was a basket weaving project, where the club members had to weave their own baskets the way the Indians did it. They also demonstrated how to fry bread and then sold it during lunch time. Title IV allowed the Indian Club to make an excursion to Catalina for a whale watch and picnic. Mecha Club worked hard this year, also. They had many fund raisers and worked throughout the year to help the students for the bilingual department.

Two groups that have helped out tremendously this year in sports, have been the Chain Crew and the Baronettes. Chain Crew has been quick at retrieving the worn out football from the game. They seem to have enjoyed helping the school's No. 1 football team. The Baronettes have done a terrific job this year with keeping stats for all the basketball games. The girls have enjoyed working with the basketball teams. Fountain Valley High School is proud to have two such dependable groups for our sports teams.

Both Ski and Aquatics clubs have had very productive years, participating in various activities. Ski club held its annual Christmas and Easter Ski trips to Park City and Snowbird each consisting of approximately five days. Students look forward to these trips every year, participating in fund raisers such as the Jog-a-Thon to help raise the needed money. Aquatics Club is involved in several different activities, both school and community oriented. The swimmers help out by coaching younger kids and supporting our own school teams. The past year they have held paper drives, sold candy and participated in the annual Tread-a-Thon. The Tread-a-Thon is always a high point in the year as participants tread water for as long as possible. The record to date is forty-eight hours being held by Coach Ike. The money collected from these events goes toward such activities as beach parties, snow trips, water-skiing, sailing and surfing. These students are always a big boost for our aquatics program.

Under the advisement of Mr. Staunton and President Chuck Hegelheimer, it is hopeful that next year's Racquetball Club will have more members. The Bowling Club had a tremendous turnout this year. Under the advisement of Mrs. Flower and Mrs. Mitchell, they managed to meet Mondays after school to bowl at the Fountain Valley Lanes.

This year's Le Mot Newspaper Staff worked hard at producing some of the finest papers in Fountain Valley High School's history. Under the direction of Advisor Janet Jue and Editor-In-Chief Corinne Dekker, this near-rookie staff molded into a fine journalism team. Their supreme effort shined through in each and every paper printed. Each month, students look forward to the opinion section as the articles were very thought provoking and interesting. Le Mot's theme definitely should've been — if not in words, in action — "Power of the Press!"

The 1979 Raconteur staff worked hard all year long to produce one of the best books ever. During the year, the staff was crazy, brilliant, and often quite delirious all at the same time. Many times at deadlines, they came up with very profound statements:

"Hey Lyle, where are my pictures?" "Rumor has it they're holding Seagull for ransom in the film room. Do you think he's worth the price?" "Is it true that they tried to run Kevin through the stabilizer processor in hopes that he'd develop into something else?" "Oh no, here come the 'Devos' again." "You got water on What color pictures?" "There's Bacadini practice at 2:30 in the darkroom." "Maybe Corey will be our dummy for the coffin."

"Did anybody bring a puzzle?" "Dena took the pictures where?" "Hey Robin, hey Jaque, are you doing anything important? Want to type?" "Where's Beth and Emily? The photographers must be attacking them in the darkroom again." "Where's Link? We're missing Link."

"Carrie, Claudine, and Susan are talking to what coach?"

"Alan I don't care if you've typed it four times already, it still has to be done over."

"What's wrong with the photographers? They must have gone out to lunch."

"Quick, send Cal on a burger run, he's getting in the way again."

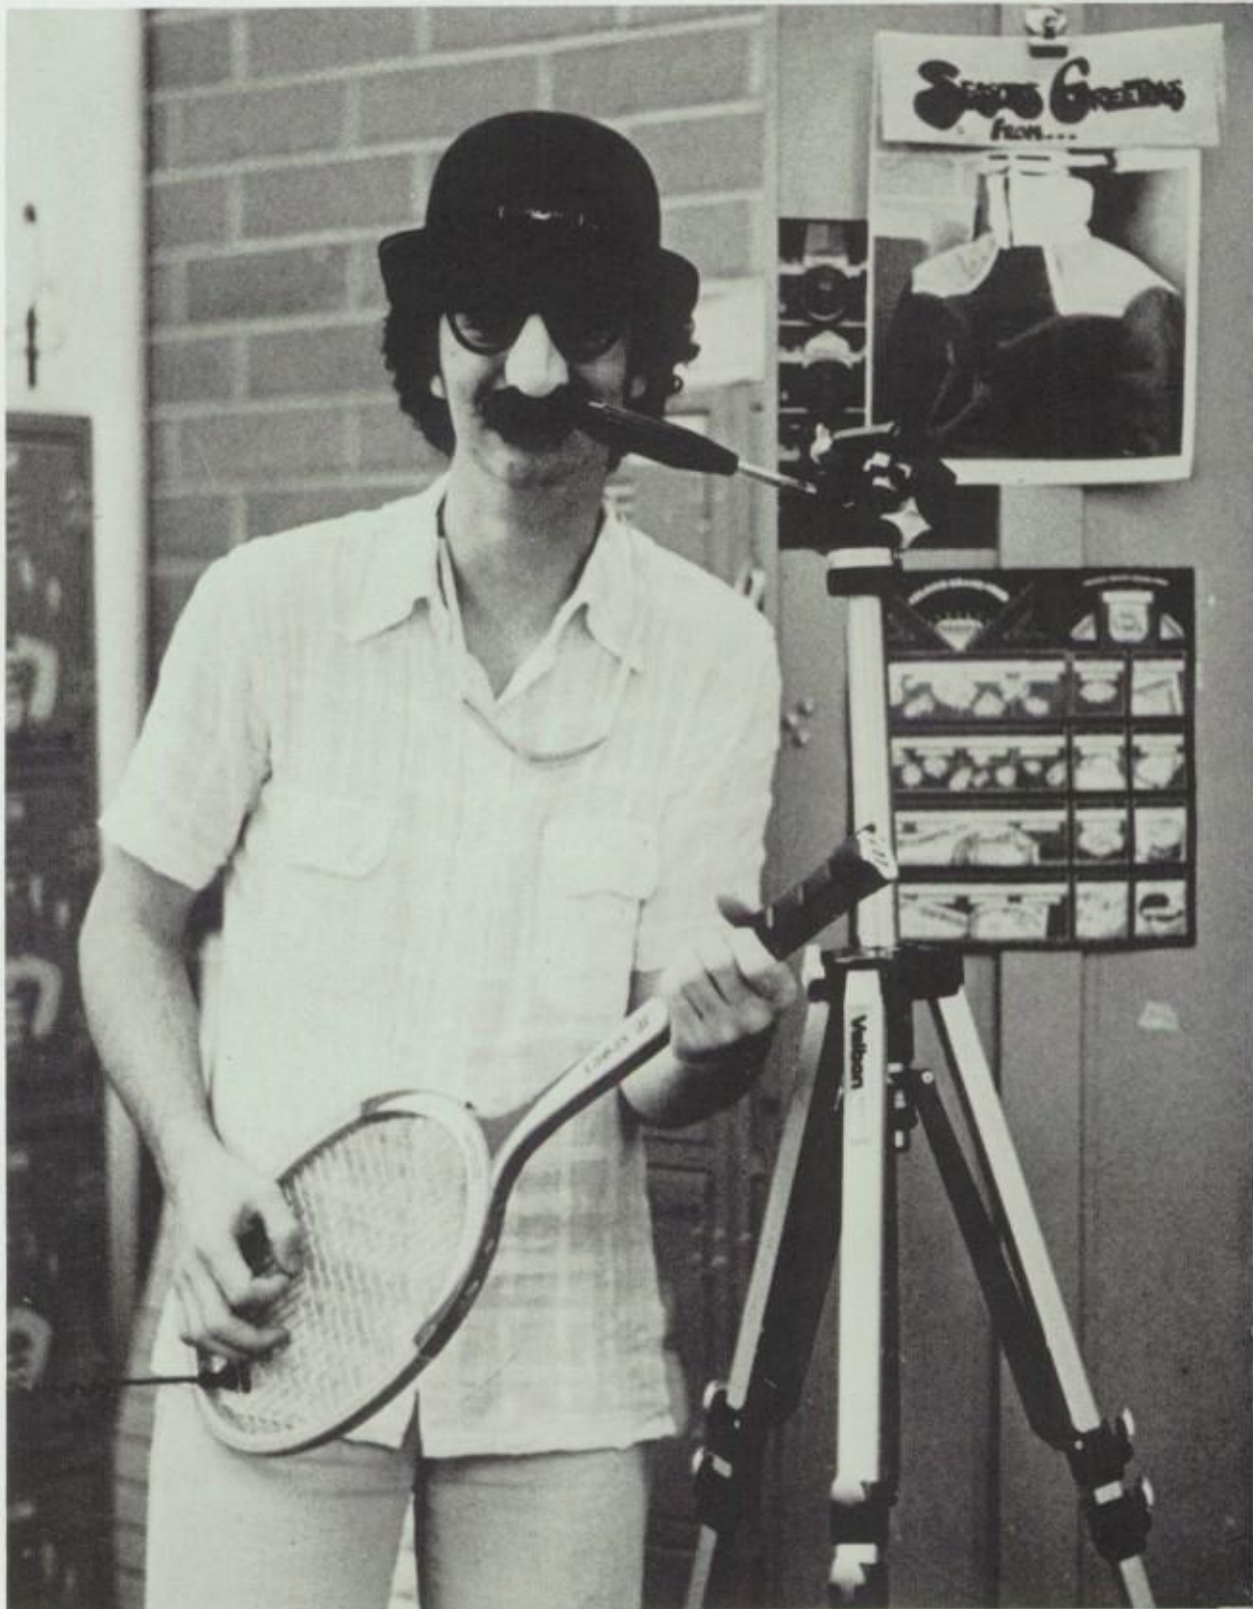

"Where's my paycheck?" "Beth, did you call that number yet?"

"Margo, would you help me?"

All I have left to do is crop pictures, write copy, and make my layout." "Ya yee ooo mao mao!"

This year's Girls Varsity Volleyball team had a very competitive season. Coach Janice Flora led them to a 3-7 record. Miss Flora commented that because of Proposition 13 causing cancellation of summer school practice, the girls had to relearn the fundamentals on the first day back to school. This slowed their development down when the season started. Mary Lange, who received the "Most Valuable Player" Award, has played on the Varsity team for three years and this year made the All-CIF Second Team. Theresa Joyce, a graduating senior who was voted "Most Inspirational", was considered a major contributor to the team. Debbie Coleman, showing great development, was voted "Most Improved Player". Coach Flora was pleased with each team member's development throughout the season.

Many of the players will be returning next year hoping to have a better season. This year's effort will be beneficial toward the team next year, as they won't have to spend as much time on basic fundamentals.

This year's Varsity Soccer Team had a slow start with the rain forcing cancellation and the rescheduling of most of their games. They were a young team, with only three starting seniors out of twenty players. They should prove to be a better team next year. The team had hard and long practices led by Coach Scobell keeping them in good health and physical condition. They played against some challenging teams in a hard league and experienced some tough competition with such schools as Edison and Marina. The team learned to work well together and had a lot of sportsmanship and spirit present at their games. Coach Scobell commented that there were some very good individuals who played including Roy Freeman, Paul Martin, Marty Peters, Scott Steinke, Thang Tran and Captain Brian Sjollena.

The 1978-79 Frosh/Soph Soccer team had the largest turnout of participants for their season than ever before. Since over seventy-five kids came out for the first time, they had to make cuts. The teams included a lot of energetic players who got an early start in Soccer. They should prove to be a winning Varsity team in 1980. Some of the most outstanding players included Todd Andrews, John Underwood and Todd Roberson. In the pre-season Marina Frosh/Soph Tournament, they placed Third out of thirty-two team participants. The Junior Varsity team did very well, losing only to the undefeated Edison. Coach PJ supervised a good team and commented that two of the most valuable players were George Del Portillo and Herman Narvarz.

was a top scorer and Jeff

Harlow was a leading rebounder. Del Polikretis and

The team competed in the Fountain Valley JV Tournament going all the way to the finals, then losing by two points to Estancia. Although losing to Estancia, the team managed to pull together and beat them by twenty points in a future game. The team may have been small, but their record shows their good ability. This year's Sophomore team had a winning season, although the team considered it more as a time for developing good skills. Even though the members had never started before, the Sophomore team played very encouragingly. The team competed in the Championship Santa Ana Tournament and they had a big win over Millikin, the game in which they had the best team effort of the year. Coach Morris was very proud and encouraged by the way they played and showed self-respect.

Jeff Hughes was also the top rebounder with the help of Lance Kubo as a leading assistant. Helping in rebounds were Ken Frens and Greg Bolin. Top defensive players were Steve Burt and Allan Villanueva. The team played Huntington High School twice winning once by 2 points and another time winning in an overtime by 3 points. Huntington played good but the Barons proved to be better. An important game was against Edison determining 1st place. The freshman Basketball players are sure to be an asset for future teams. The District Freshman Basketball team this year was also very successful.

Under the direction of Miss Strausburg, the Varsity and JV Girl's Basketball team had a very trying year. Though they stuck together and put their best effort forward, they didn't have a very successful season. The Varsity team will graduate one senior, Kathy Tracy, with the majority of the girls returning. This year's Varsity and JV Basketball teams got along well together, showing lots of spirit and sportsmanship at their games. They will be looking forward to a more successful season next year.

This year's Varsity Wrestling was a young, and inexperienced team. The team consisted of mainly sophomores who were showing lots of potential. They had a trying year with a few injuries. But, overcoming their weaknesses, they placed second in the Sunset League. Coach Rosales commented that he had watched the team progress tremendously during the year and he thinks the team has a good chance of placing First in the Sunset League next year. Also, he feels the underclassmen added great depth and strength to the team. Three valuable members of the team were Bobby Page, a graduating senior, junior John Oganeku and Rick Nozaki, a sophomore who placed Fourth in the Costa Mesa Tournament. Rick is of great advantage to the team and will be on the Varsity Team again next year.

The 1978-79 JV Wrestling team, coached by Mr. Berg, and the Frosh/Soph team, coached by Mr. Carrozzo, both placed Second in the Sunset League. The Junior Varsity team also came in First place in the Estancia Tournament. This tournament consisted of sixteen different high schools participating around our area. The JV team has a lot of young members, who will probably move on to Varsity next year. Arte Maltby, John Kaloper and Andy Morgan were noted as being of great help to the team. The Frosh/Soph team did really good in the Fountain Valley Tournament consisting of eight different high schools, which they placed First. In the Cannon Tournament, with sixteen schools entering, they came in Fourth. Four outstanding members of the team showing great potential during the season were Kyle Thompson, Bill Thompson, Mark Steele and Mike Mino.

Coming off of a Championship year, the Barons Gymnastic team demonstrated the same potential for another C.I.F. Championship team.

Returning lettermen Sean Stewart, Randy Leivas, Blaine Tripp, and Chris Rehm once again seemed to be a great asset to the school's team.

Aiding the team were newcomers Tod Goldstein and Adwayne Benard, who was predicted to win the C.I.F. vaulting championship. Cody Oakland and Eddie Baker showed a great deal of potential for future years. The team was directed by Coach Armstrong.

The Wheelchair Basketball team of Fountain Valley High School had a record of 7-0. Since the basketball team plays only non-handicap teams such as the English Department or the P.E. Department and even the basketball and baseball teams, their record has been extraordinary. In the past three years, their record has been 29-0. The captains of the team, Tim Dimalante and Michael Brook, are proud of their team and their success. Coach Cracchiola is very pleased with the results. The Girl's Gymnastic team started out their year with a fine showing in their meets. Each member of the team found that each meet was exciting and challenging. The girls succeeded at improving their skills tremendously.

This year, the Modern Dance team, worked all year putting on concerts to earn money for the ISOMATA USC Scholarship. This scholarship is worth 800 dollars and goes towards sending two students to USC for three weeks during the summer session. To earn this money, they put on the winter Choreographers Concert in which ten different high schools participated. In March, they put on a "Mini Concert" for our school, and in May, they presented a Spring Concert. This year's Dance team consisted of strong, young dancers, five of which were male. Mrs. Jones commented that the boys added a new dimension to the team giving them more liberties, such as leaps and other precision movements. Joann Tully, the Head Manager, and Alison Rustvold, Assistant Manager, organized the team. The top Choreographers included Lori Jones and Alison Rustvold. The dancers this year performed everything from disco to tap.

The surfers are to be commended for their excellent sportsmanship as well as their performance in the water. In the League All-Stars, Mark Maris, placed sixth in the Kneeriders heat and Henry Noppenberger placed third in the Surfer's heat. Coach Ester had a great year with the Surf Team. The Golf Team this year started their season undefeated. Many of last year's players returned to better their golfing skills. The team was very strong with some of its leading players being Matt Stevens, Dean Roberts, and Chris Schmitt. The JV Baseball team displayed exceptional ability unusually early in the baseball season. The team had a very solid defense and excellent pitching due to the fact that many of its players came from last year's championship Frosh-Soph team. A great deal of responsibility was placed on the offensive players to score runs. Some of the players credited with outstanding performances were Carlos Ratuelo, John Fockler, Darren Dairak, Dave Shaw, and Jeff Coen.

This year, the rain didn't stop the Girls' Varsity Softball team from playing to the best of their ability. Although the team was young, they were hard-working, which led to success. The team members had a good attitude and looked forward to seeing results of their hard work in C.I.F. Competition. Individual players were not singled out, as the team worked completely as a whole. Ms. Caliendo commented that the team was an aggressive, take-charge team that looked forward to new challenges. The girls' JV Softball team was relatively new this year. There were many freshmen participating out of the 14 team members. The JV team had been Sunset League leaders the past 2 years and appeared to be just as successful this year. Coach Debbie Martin helped strengthen the girls' softball skills.

The '78-'79 Varsity Track Team started off the season right by defeating their first two opponents. Under the direction of Coaches Thompson, Blackman, Clark, and Ybarra, the team showed much promise. The start of the season saw the Barons as favorites in the Sunset League. As Coach Thompson said, "We're going for the championship." The tremendous effort and spirit shown by Alan Duncan in high hurdles and sprints; Kevin Romine in the 100 yard dash the 220 and the long jump; Dennis Cowen in the triple jump; Brian Sherrell in the 440 and 100; Steve Brown in the 880; Don Baughman in shot put; Chuck Megeleimer in the pole vault; Curtis Brase in the 330 low hurdles and the rest of the team enabled the Fountain Valley Barons to lead the way.

Under the direction of Coaches Thompson, Blackman, Clark, and Ybarra, the JV and Frosh/Soph Track teams had a great season. As favorites in their respective divisions of the Sunset League, they went on to prove their merit by winning their first three meets. On the JV team Rick Stewart, Kevin Conroay, Mark Jennings, and Larry Baxter proved themselves with their outstanding performances. On the Frosh/Soph team Tony Leonetti, Steve Southward, Keith Richards, Mike Davidson, Rod Emery, John Hirai, Jim Fast, Kyle Thompson, and Greg Bolin deserve to be recognized. With all this upcoming talent the Barons should stay number one in track for a long time.

Along with running, track included a variety of other things for competition including hurdles, relays, shot put, high jump, long jump, and discus. This years' number one distance runner was Annabelle Villanuava who placed first in the one and two mile races against Estancia. LeeAnne Margerum was a top sprinter and Beth Melton was another top runner. This years' team was strong and participants showed a lot of potential for future years.

This year's Baron Varsity Volleyball team was potentially the strongest team ever fielded by Fountain Valley High. With seven returning Varsity lettermen, and four players up from JV, the Barons had a very experienced group of athletes. With the Barons schedule consisting of Volleyball powers such as Laguna Beach, San Clemente and Corona del Mar, the Barons needed all the experience and skill they could muster to maintain their winning tradition. The FV Volleyball team consisted of a very strong group of individuals. The middle blocker positions were held down by Tom Gregory and Dan Haskell. Our outside hitters were Frank Real, Randy Harris and Brent King. The setting responsibility belonged to Robert Von Hatten, Doug Harbottle, Drake Turner and Dat Do. Newcomers included Tran Thang, Monte Fitch, Alan Parry, and Mike Curran. Coach Lovelace believed that this year's Volleyball team might take the strongest showing in the team's seven year history. This year's JV team had only three returning lettermen, and consisted primarily of new incoming Freshmen and Sophomores. Because of the amount of newcomers to the program, the JV team was inexperienced and had a very challenging season.

The 1979 Varsity Tennis team had very successful pre-season matches and gained much momentum in their quest for the Sunset League title. This early success was attributed to much experience as the team had eight returning seniors and one junior playing their hearts out for Fountain Valley High. The returning lettermen who played excellent tennis for this year included Chuck Hamilton, Mike Hamill and NamSoo Lee. Fountain Valley expected to have two of the strongest doubles teams in the league this year consisting of Jim Suguitan and Sam Tang, Dave Guyot and Don Paden. Coach Snowden felt that each league match would be close, but this year's team would have the mental toughness to pull them out.

JV Tennis team were also to be congratulated on their superior performance as Coach Snowden anticipated them taking one of the two top positions in the Sunset League at the end of the season. The exceptional players on the team were Bruce Dorsey and Bill Jackson competing in doubles, and Larry Mello playing singles.

In the morning, in the evening, they're on the run. Checking and double checking to make sure everything is done. The fact is that the Administrators are on the go so much, you're lucky to ever find them in their offices. They're out rushing around making sure the school is running smoothly. C is for the care they take in guiding us. O is for the orderly Offices they run. U is for the understanding they show. N is for how nice they are. S is for how smoothly they work out all our problems. E is for their endless energy. L is for the loyalty they show for us. O is for their outstanding performance. R is for their readiness. S is for being super people. What does this describe? Our COUNSELORS!!!

"I wonder what we're going to do today in class. The sentence trees yesterday really messed me up. I still don't understand how, 'The boy stepped into his orange shoe!,' turned out looking like an eggplant. Well, onto bigger and better things: Poetry. Boy, those long words are driving me crazy, alliteration, metonymy, rhythm, and that strange one, onomona-something. Do poets really use these words? Well, down to business. I wonder what word rhymes with hippopotamus?"

"In English, I am sure the rule is i before e except after c. Now, in Latin . . . is it c before i or i before e? When the bell rings I forget all of that anyway. The first thing we are supposed to say in Spanish class is "Buenos thee-us." And, I can hardly wait to try my French accent, "Bon-sewer". I just love rolling those foreign words off the end of my tongue, like "au river", "madame swell", "a-river-dar-che", "moon-cherry", "see-see sin-your", and many, many more. I should be ready to be a translator at the U.N. in no time. I know one thing for certain, never again am I going to take four language classes in the same semester."

"Social Studies is fun. Where else can you draw a map and get points for it? It was hard to find the right color for Sherman's march but I finally did it. Now we're through with the Civil War, the fourth time I've studied it. We advanced to WW I and II — the good stuff. Oh rats, I forgot, we still have to study the time in between, the one with the big scandal, was it Watergate? The 1800's are my favorite time period, the fur trader's time. Did they take the furs back to Europe in submarines? I can't remember, well no one's perfect."

"Ummm . . . the aroma in the cooking rooms is just delicious. I think Home Ec. is probably every student's favorite subject. I just loved the chocolate brownies we made last week. Too bad it was supposed to be a cake. I wonder what sumptuous foods we will be making next time. What would be more perfect than to sell one of my sink paintings? Now, I'm not Picasso, or a Michaelangelo, but I really think my last painting was terrific. Well, Mom will love. I wonder what type of song we'll be playing today? I hope it will be something exciting and moving with lots of bangs, crashes, and pazzaz. A song like that gives you enough excitement for the entire day!"

“Well, it's time to get the gas mask on, I'm going into the Science Hall. One small whiff tempts the food I had for lunch to take an encore. Why is it that once those chemicals get together, they try to out do each other in the 'odor de stinke' category? They didn't believe I could do it, but I did; I just slipped under the car, loosened the plug and before you know it, I had the oil emptying into my face. Of course, in proving myself I forgot the drip pan. In electronics, does the positive side have a plus or a minus sign on it? Oh well, I'll try it this way. Wow, so that's what an electrolytic capacitor looks like when it explodes!”

"What is it about math that makes it such a puzzling subject? I can get the angles and the perpendicular and parallel lines okay, but what is this business about the Pythagorean Theorem? For some reason or other, I can understand the odds on the football game much easier, and I can always calculate my net earnings within pennies. Those business machines are the greatest things to run. Within seconds, problems are solved, papers are typed, or materials are duplicated. I'll never forget the day Seymour put his face down on the xerox machine and duplicated it. What we didn't need however, was two Seymours. I'm a typing student. I'm great!"

"Well, today's the day I get to change sports. I'm going to have to be more careful this time and pick something I can play. It's the end of the semester so this is my fourth try. My first three were sure bums. Basketball just wasn't my sport. I didn't even know which goal to throw at.

Badminton wasn't much better. No one told me a birdie was the plastic thing you hit. I spent three days just looking for birds in the gym. Self-defense was alright but I'd never hit an attacker with my purse, I'd probably break my mirror or compact. Next year I think I'll try team sports. They look like fun. Oh no, the only thing left to take is weightlifting."

"I wonder why the instructor is so upset? The brakes just squealed a little. I think I'm doing real well. I did miss a red light back there, but no one hit us, so there's nothing to worry about. The teacher was so nervous when he got into the car, I don't understand it. I scored very high in the simulators, I only hit three pedestrians and a dog. I've also done well on all the tests. I'm a very safe driver. Oops, was that a stop sign? Maybe I'll get to parallel park today. Wedging my car between two other cars sounds like fun. What's that behind me? A flashing red light, I better pull over. Hello, Officer."

Twenty-four outstanding students, two for every month, are chosen each year to be Students of the Month. Honors Commission, consisting of four students from each class level, selects the students based on their academic achievements and extra-curricular activities on and off campus. From the Students of the Month, the Students of the Year are chosen. To be a Student of the Year is the highest honor anyone can receive at Fountain Valley High. This year, Karen Pikulin and Mary Sumner were chosen to represent FVHS as Students of the Year. Karen has been involved in many Commissions, including Sophomore, Junior, Senior, and Prom. She has been actively involved with Student Government, Band, Publications, and her church. She was also a Junior Valentine's Princess and received a Coronet Award. Mary Sumner also participated in Student Government and various Commissions. Mary worked in the Work Experience Office and played in the FV Community Band. She was actively involved in many clubs, including Girl's League and Keywanettes. The 1979 Students of the Year were well chosen.

COMPLETING

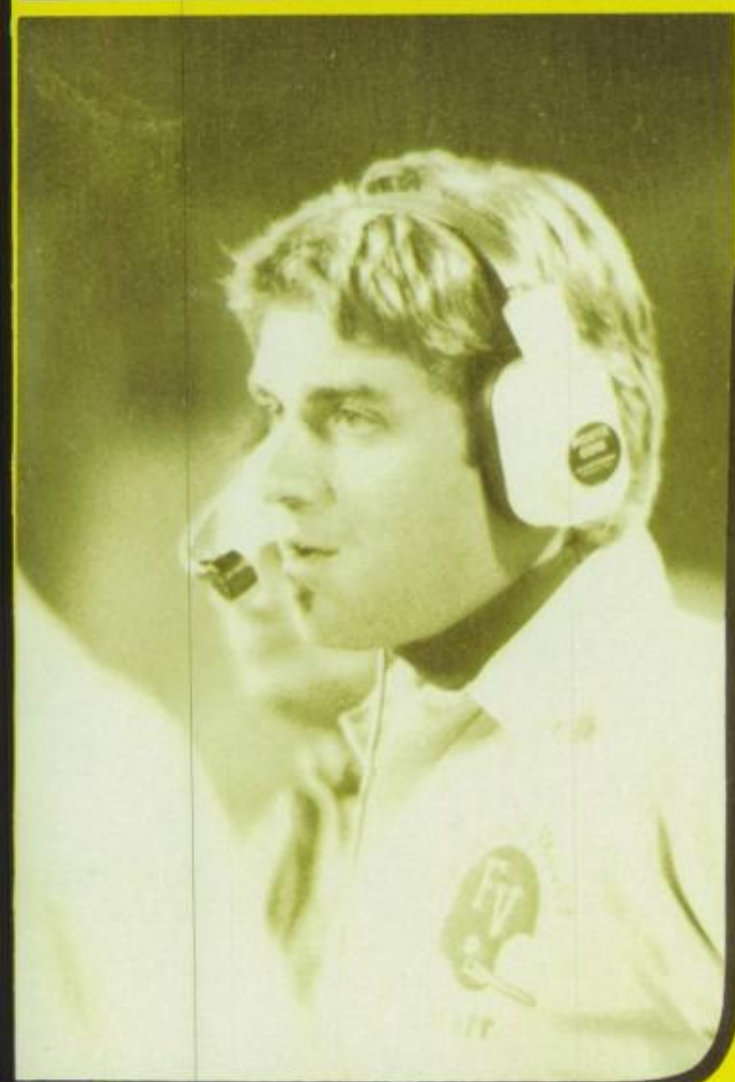

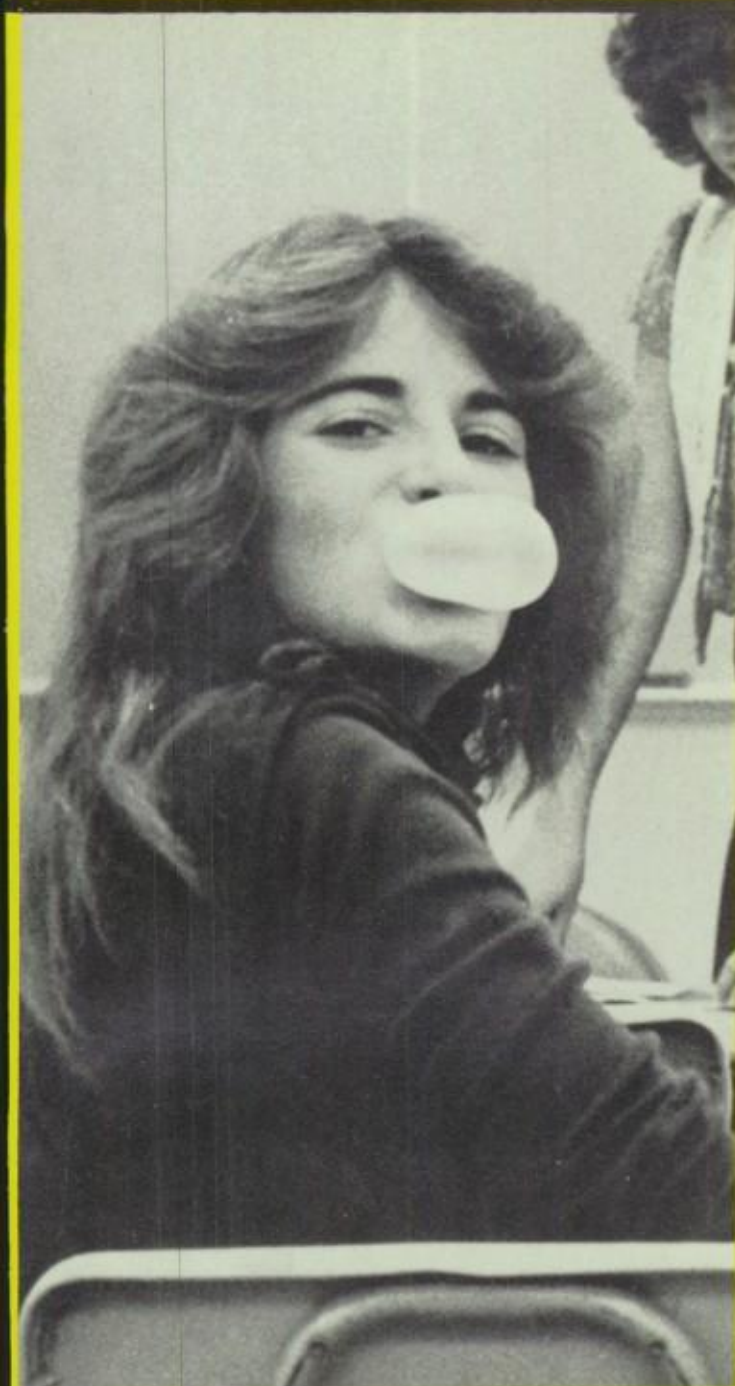

Apart from the pulling and hauling stands what I am.
 Stands amused, complacent, compassionating, idle,
 unitary,
 Looks down, is erect, or bends an arm or an impalpable
 certain rest,
 Looking with side-curved head curious what will come next,
 Both in and out of the game and watching and wondering at it.
 Backward I see in my own days where I sweated through fog
 with linguists and contenders,
 I have no mockings or arguments, I witness and wait.

I exist as I am, that is enough,
 If no other in the world be aware I sit content,
 And if each and all be aware I sit content.
 One world is aware and by far the largest to me, and that is myself,
 And whether I come to my own to-day or in ten thousand or ten million years,
 I can cheerfully take it now, or with equal cheerfulness I can wait.
 My foothold is tenon'd and nortis'd in granite,
 I laugh at what you call dissolution,
 And I know the amplitude of time.

I tramp a perpetual journey, (come listen all!)
My signs are a rain-proof coat, good shoes, and a staff cut from the woods,
No friend of mine takes his ease in my chair,
I have no chair, no church, no philosophy,
I lead no man to a dinner-table, library, exchange,
But each man and each woman of you I lead upon a knoll,
My left hand hooking you round the waist,
My right hand pointing to landscapes of continents and the public road.

Not I, not anyone else can travel that road for you,
You must travel it for yourself.
It is not far, it is within reach,
Perhaps you have been on it since you were born and did not know,
Perhaps it is everywhere on water and on land.

Shoulder your duds dear son, and I will mine, and let us hasten forth,
Wonderful cities and free nations we shall fetch as we go.

— Walt Whitman

Candida, Left: Mr. Wilson will be missed but not forgotten upon his retirement at year's end; Right: Ms. Schwartzkopf's class enjoys springtime classroom.

Editor's Note: There have been many hours put into this publication, and I would like to thank everyone who put forth an effort to make the Raconteur 1979 a possibility. My respect and admiration goes to many people: Miss Margo Parkins (Julie), for always being there to help me out, Mr. Ferguson for buying us everything and the great Valentine date, Mr. Steve Eddy for being our den mother, Sandy and Dick and all the pro's from Hall's, Emily Adams for writing the opening copy and becoming a good friend, Alan Nozaki and all the photographers for taking the best pictures and doing their crazy stunts, Sandra Armstrong for her dedication and the quality of her work, and everyone who directly or indirectly affected the book. All I can say is, "Is it really one A.M.?"

Advisors Note: Although I yelled and screamed a lot, I loved working with all involved. Beth, you've done a whale of a job!

Think of everything we have to look forward to; we're going

Hey Melissa,
 Wasn't this a fun year? (just being sarcastic) But really,
 next year's gonna be great & I know as a cheerleader that you'll keep the great class of 82 a lot more spirited!
 Love Tabi!

Melissa,
 Anything I write cannot express what we've had. Singing cartoon
 theme and commercials before English. To our deep discussion at midnight. You're a true, sincere friend and living with you can cheer up even my darkest mood. Two and a half years and still going strong. This year has been really COSMIC! Keep the football players happy!
 Love ya,
 Julie
